Jesus prays before choosing his disciples (Luke 6:12-16)

Jesus Prays Before Choosing His Disciples

Now during those days
he went out to the mountain to pray;
and he spent the night in prayer to God.

And when day came,
he called his disciples and chose twelve of them,
whom he also named apostles:

Simon, whom he named Peter,
and his brother Andrew, and James,
and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew,
and Matthew, and Thomas,
and James son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was called the Zealot, and Judas son of James,
and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Core learning: I have reflected on how Jesus prayed at such times:
Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane (Luke 22: 39-46)

Jesus Prays in the Garden of Gethsemane

He came out and went,
as was his custom,
to the Mount of Olives;
and the disciples followed him.

When he reached the place,
he said to them,

‘Pray that you may not come into the time of trial.’

Then he withdrew from them about a stone’s throw,
knelt down, and prayed,

‘Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me;
yet, not my will but yours be done.’

Jesus Prays in the Garden of Gethsemane

Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength.

In his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

When he got up from prayer,
he came to the disciples
and found them sleeping because of grief,
and he said to them,
'Why are you sleeping?
Get up and pray
that you may not come into the time of trial.'
