

P4 RERC 1-24a

I have considered ways in which the Catholic Christian community works together to show care for the world and for the needs of all people.

I have reflected on the implications of this for my life and that of others.

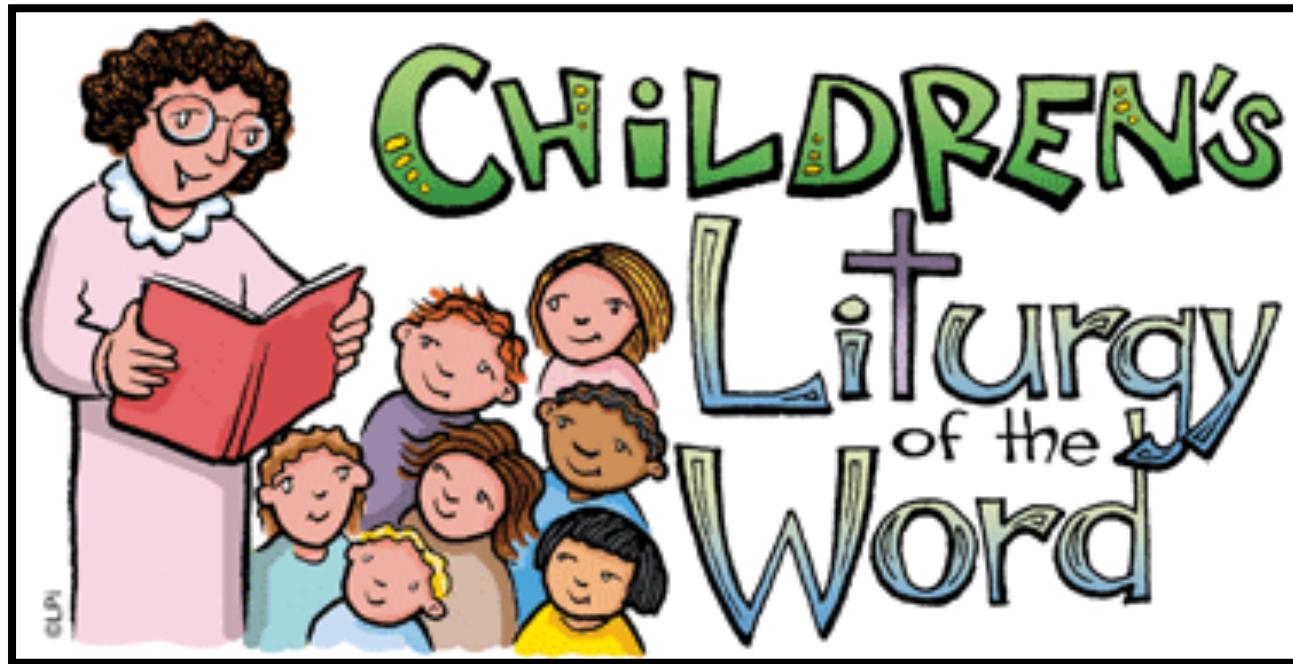

Core learning:

I have had opportunities to listen to how my class teacher, head teacher and school chaplain, as members of the local Catholic Church, have shown care for the world and the needs of all people.

To do:

Invite a leader of the Children's liturgy from the local parish to speak to your class.

Core learning:

I have developed my understanding of what it means to be part of my local Catholic Church by listening to members from different parish groups explain reasons why they serve and care for the world and the needs of all people e.g., the Society of St Vincent de Paul (SSVP), Children's Liturgy Leaders, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Music Groups.

St Vincent de Paul

Feast Day: 27th September

Born: 1581 :: Died: 1660

Vincent, was born in a town in Southwest France and was the son of poor French peasants.

Today the town is called Saint-Vincent-de-Paul, Landes, France.

Can you find it on a map on Google Maps?

When Vincent grew up and became well-known, he loved to tell people how he had taken care of his father's pigs.

Vincent was clever, so his father sent him to school to study under the Franciscan friars at Acqs.

After finishing his studies from the University of Toulouse, Vincent became a priest at the age of 20.

Core learning: I have reflected prayerfully on the life of St Vincent De Paul, on his love for the poor and I know that he modeled himself on Jesus.

I know that I am called to follow this example in simple and practical ways.

But while he was traveling by sea from one city to another, Vincent fell into the hands of Turkish pirates who sold him as a slave in Tunis.

Two years later after he was finally set free by one of his owners, who he converted to Christianity, he returned to France where he served as a parish priest.

St. Vincent De Paul Helps People!!

"Extend mercy towards others, so that there can be no one in need whom you meet without helping, for what hope is there for us if God should withdraw His mercy from us?"

Then one day, Vincent was called to the side of a dying peasant.

In front of many people, this man declared that all his past confessions had been bad ones.

Suddenly Father Vincent realized how badly the poor people of France needed spiritual help.

When he began to preach to them, crowds went to confession.

He finally decided to start a congregation of priests to work especially among the poor.

The charities of St. Vincent de Paul were so many that it seems impossible for one person to have begun so much:

Vincent took care of criminals who worked on the sailing ships.

This man of vision started the Congregation of the Sisters of Charity.

He also opened hospitals and homes for orphans and old people.

Vincent collected large sums of money for poor areas.

He sent missionaries to many countries and bought back home those who had been prisoners from foreign lands.

Even though he was such a charitable man, however, Vincent humbly admitted that he was not so by nature.

"I would have been hard, rough and ill-tempered," he said "were it not for God's grace."

"It is not sufficient for me to love God if I do not love my neighbor.

I belong to God and to the poor."
