God's Covenant with Noah

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, ‘As for me,
I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you,
the birds, the domestic animals,
and every animal of the earth with you,
as many as came out of the ark.
I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.’

God's Covenant with Noah

God said, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations:

I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

God's Covenant with Noah

When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.'

God said to Noah, '
This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.'

God's Covenant with Abraham

Now the Lord said to Abram,
'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you.
I will make of you a great nation,
and I will bless you,
and make your name great,
so that you will be a blessing.

I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse;
and in you
all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

God's Covenant with Abraham

So Abram went,
as the Lord had told him;
and Lot went with him.

Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered,
and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran;
and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan.

When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh.

God's Covenant with Abraham

At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Then the Lord appeared to Abram, and said, 'To your offspring I will give this land.'

So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him.

From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east;
and there he built an altar to the Lord and invoked the name of the Lord.
And Abram journeyed on by stages towards the Negeb.

Now there was a famine in the land.

So Abram went down to Egypt to reside there as an alien, for the famine was severe in the land.

When he was about to enter Egypt,

he said to his wife Sarai,

'I know well that you are a woman beautiful in appearance;

and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, "This is his wife";

then they will kill me, but they will let you live.

Say you are my sister,

so that it may go well with me because of you, and that my life may be spared on your account.'

You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Now therefore,
if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples.

Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation.

These are the words

God's Covenant with The House of Israel

The days are surely coming,
says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt
-a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord.

God's Covenant with The House of Israel

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord:

I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer shall they teach one another,
or say to each other,
'Know the Lord',
for they shall all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest,
says the Lord;
for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

God's Covenant with The House of Israel

Thus says the Lord, who gives the sun for light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night,
who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar-the Lord of hosts is his name:
